LOCATION

Plaza del Sol is conveniently located on U.S. 90 & 277 - a mile from the Rio Grande and the Mexican town of Ciudad Acuña, just 150 miles west of San Antonio, 180 miles northwest of Laredo and 140 miles south of San Angelo. A short 15-minute drive takes you to the pristine Amistad National Recreation Area which hosts approx. 1.3 million visitors and hosts over 200 fishing tournaments annually. A true Texas treasure, Del Rio offers picturesque water views, both lake and spring, the oldest operating winery in Texas, and up-and-coming historic downtown district and lively culture within.

Del Rio is also home to Laughlin Air Force Base, a pilot-training facility under Air Education and Training Command and Border Patrol Sector Headquarters, home to around 6,000 military and civilian personnel, with an annual payroll of $151-M and has $243-M in economic impact to the community per year.

Industrial-Maquila sector – 48+ plants that employ over 40,000 in Ciudad Acuña, our sister city across the border. Approximately 500 employees live in Del Rio. Major plants include, General Electric, Bendix, Arconic, Higuchi, Sigmatron, and Gentherm to name a few. They impact Del Rio's economy with over $40 million

The local economy is driven by Federal Payroll and the Industrial Complex: Homeland Security, Border Patrol, Immigration, & Customs have a predominant presence with annual payroll at approximately $127 M and an economic impact of $197 M. In addition, the local School District has payroll of $66 M.

VIBRANT MEXICO MARKET

Coahuila is the third largest state in Mexico, sharing a 318-mile border with the U.S. With a population of 2,954,915, Coahuila is divided into 38 municipalities, which are further grouped into five different regions. The Northern region, home to the municipality, is characterized by strong industry with major presence of maquiladora, coal, thermal power plants, and a recent investment in the development of wind energy. The Acuña municipality is home to the New Acuña International Airport, located on the Santa Eulalia road, which has infrastructure for cargo and commercial flights, customs house offers, and migration.
